

SQL Database Developer

Are your queries faster than a speeding bullet? Can you normalize a database in your sleep?

Then PROFI CREDIT — as part of Profireal Group — Needs YOU! 🙌

Who We Are:

We're more than just another financial company. We work diligently, carefully managing our databases across various locations, including the Czech Republic, Poland, Bulgaria, Slovakia, Philippines and North Macedonia . With over 30 years of experience, we've developed a strong understanding of consumer lending, though we know it's no easy task. We're still evolving! Now, we need a SQL Database Developer to join our squad of IT superheroes!

What We're Looking For:

Do you enjoy long walks on the beach, candlelit dinners, and optimizing SQL queries? Okay, maybe not the first two, but if you're enthusiastic about databases and ready to join our Agile team, we might just be your perfect match!

Your Mission, Should You Choose to Accept It:

- Design and develop database tables, views, stored procedures, and functions.
- Work on shiny new business features that will make everyone say, "Whoa, who did that?"
- Support our existing systems so they keep running like a well-oiled machine.
- Performance tuning and optimization – because faster is always better, right?

Extra Points For:

- Knowing database normalization principles like the back of your hand.
- Being familiar with the logical model of the database.

What You Bring to the Table:

- 2+ years of experience in database programming with SQL (MS SQL, Oracle, or other).
- Practical knowledge in designing, developing, and implementing database solutions.
- A freakish attention to detail – because the devil is in the data!
- Ability to work both in a team and independently.

What's in It for You?

- 😊 A team-centric atmosphere – no lone wolves here!
- 🚀 The chance to work on interesting and meaningful business projects – make your mark.
- 💡 Appreciation of creative ideas and the freedom to work on them – we're all ears.
- 🎓 Learning and development opportunities – because growing is a lifelong thing.
- 🧘 Encouraging a healthy lifestyle and work-life balance – we care about your wellness.
- 💰 A competitive salary package – because you deserve it.
