

LIBERTY Steel Group, as part of the GFG Alliance, is a global steel and mining company with over 30,000 employees in more than 200 locations on four continents. It is an international business with an integrated offer - from the production of liquid steel made from raw materials and recycled materials, to high-precision steels and associated services, available to customers worldwide

Liberty Skopje, as part of the Liberty Steel Group, is one of the largest producers of steel products in the Balkans and offers cold rolled, galvanized and organic coated products, mainly for the general industry segment of the regional market. We believe that our position in the steel and mining industry brings unique opportunities.

We are currently inviting interested applicants to apply for the full-time position in our Automation Department.

Automation Engineer

Responsibilities:

In the field of development / take-up / maintenance of software applications, performs:

- Analysis, design, programming, testing, implementation, maintenance of application software for automation systems with PLC;
- Analysis, design, programming, testing, implementation, maintenance of HMI software;
- Participating in technical specifications for hardware and software applications made by third-party companies;
- Surveillance and downloading/taking software applications made by third-party firms.

In the field of DC and AC converters (direct current converters and alternative converters):

- Analysis, design, programming, testing and implementation of applications containing DC and AC converters;
- Participating in the development of technical specifications for applications that include DC and AC converters made by third-party companies;
- Supervising and taking over the applications of DC and AC converters from third-parties.

Requirements:

- Graduate degree in automation or electronics
- Required knowledge: software and hardware, operating systems, computer networks, direct current converters and alternative converters
- PLC programming skills (software: Siemens, L1SA, Telemecanique, Unitronics), HMI & SCADA applications
- Knowledge of hardware automation systems
- Written and verbal communication and presentation skills (both in Macedonian and English)
- Problem solving skills, involvement and desire for personal development

If you are looking for an opportunity to work across some exciting projects with the ability to influence and affect the business in a positive way, please send your CV in English using the Apply option.

Note: In accordance with personal data protection law, by submitting your application we will process your personal data as a pre-contractual activity or, if you agree, store it in our candidate database. You can withdraw your consent at any time by sending a request to the following email: HRJobs.Skopje@libertysteelgroup.com. More information can be found in the Privacy Notice for Employment Candidates: <https://libertysteelgroup.com/mk/vacancies/>